Psalm 8:4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

What a joy it is to know that God cares for and thinks about us no matter what corner of the world we live in! I trust that His blessings are upon you in YOUR corner of the world!

We have had a wonderful past couple of months. In December our church had its first baptism since I have been the pastor. What a blessing it is to see the Lord working in lives! Through the testimony of this young man we have also seen the work at the University expanding. We now hold a weekly Bible study, with three in attendance! Praise the Lord! Please pray for each of these young Christians as they grow in the Lord and share the Gospel with their families - this can be a difficult thing to do in a country where religious roots run so deep.

The church here is doing well, and the people have a good spirit. I have recently started a series preaching through the Psalms on Sundays, and we are studying through Daniel in our midweek Bible study. Please pray for me, as we are now in the prophetic chapters. Some of these things can be tricky enough to explain in English, and when you add the extra layer of a foreign language it can be even more difficult!

The kids are continuing to do well - please keep them in prayer especially in the next few weeks. They will likely have to take an intensive test to determine which school they will go to next year. They should do fine, but a little extra prayer certainly would be a help! Thanks again for all you do make it possible for us to be here! We will be praying for you, that the Lord would continue to use you back in the States!
