MISSIONARIES TO BRAZIL

January/February 2009

Ministry Update:

How quickly the time has passed! On January 5th we completed one year of deputation! With gratitude in our hearts we can reminisce over God's provision and protection as well as the Divine appointments He has sent along the way. We started out on the road with 0% of our support just one week after Jeremy quit his job at UPS and have seen the Lord provide in many wonderful ways. We now have nearly half of the needed support and are looking forward to seeing the other half raised this year! God has given us many wonderful witnessing and preaching opportunities throughout our travels, and we can only look back and say thank you to our all-knowing, all-powerful Creator who has led us each step of the way! We are also grateful to each of you who have generously given and prayed for us!

Family Update:

God has blessed us as a family as well! Our home church had a special ordination service for Jeremy. What a blessing it was to receive his ordination certificate from His dad, a deacon in the church. Esther's pregnancy is going well so far, and she has not been sick or had any trouble traveling. Allie and Bethany are looking forward to meeting their new baby brother or sister. Allie turned three shortly after Christmas and seems to be growing so quickly. She loves to read books and has quite a desire to learn to read herself. She loves our "Bible time" each morning and evening and seems to be understanding more each day. Please pray that she would be saved as soon as she is able to comprehend her sinful state before God!

Praises:

- New supporting churches!
- More meetings scheduled for this year!
- Our team missionaries the Schrocks delivered a healthy baby!
- Good witnessing opportunities along the deputation trail!

Prayers:

- More scheduled meetings and supporting churches.
- More laborers for the harvest field.
- Salvation of Favio, an Italian man we witnessed to in Pennsylvania.
- Spiritual wisdom and strength as we present our ministry and witness to folks along the way.
