

CARRIE MATHENA

Missionary to the Children of

Grenada, West Indies

October/November - 2008

Dear Friends and Faithful Supporters,

“My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.”
Psalms 57:7

Truly God has “fixed” my heart on the children of Grenada and their need for the Savior. I have much to “sing and give praise” to Him as He faithfully provides and brings me closer to accomplishing His will.

Not only did God give me a fall schedule full of meetings but six of these churches took on my support bringing my support level to 72%. Being a part of ministries along the way through the presentation and by teaching ladies and children’s classes has been a blessing.

In addition, I leave for Grenada in a few days with my bags overflowing! Packing has been a challenge because three of my supporting churches have given so the children of Grenada can have a wonderful Christmas. One church donated candy and bubbles for treat bags, another gave money for watches, and the third donated blankets. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to serve with my parents for a month, and am excited to share these gifts with the children. If you need to contact me in December, please call (678) 608-2173.

The Lord has also provided the funds for the sisters to travel with me and complete their survey trip of Grenada. Please pray that the time they spend in Grenada will confirm God’s calling in their lives and increase their burden for the spiritual needs in Grenada.

Please continue to pray for the ministry in Grenada as the church has had a lot of visitors the past few months. The church is growing, and my parents are anxious to have help. Pray that God will provide the rest of my support as I long to be in Grenada. My prayer is that the children of Grenada will learn to “fix” their hearts on God and seek to live their lives according to His will.

Serving together with you to reach the children of Grenada,

Carrie Mathena
