Thank you for praying!

September – December 2010

Dear Co-Laborers in Christ:

"Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded." II Chronicles 15:7

God says to keep on serving Him because our works shall be rewarded. But what never ceases to amaze us is how rewarding the work is now!

Faith Baptist Pre-School has been exciting. Pat really enjoys helping Carrie, and the ministry has been rewarded with four of the children's families attending church services.

The holiday season is always full of work. We caroled and handed out forty-one plates of sweet breads to the elderly, shut-ins, and others who needed to be remembered in our community. After the breads were baked and packaged, it took four days to deliver them. During this time, we were also busy with sets, costumes, play practice, and handing out invitations for our first Christmas program in Loretto. Carrie had everyone excited, and the church memorized the Christmas story in Luke chapter 2 which went along with the program. On Christmas morning, it was rewarding to see the church full of people who gathered together to celebrate Jesus' birth. Because of your gifts, everyone received a present, and the children also received treat bags full of goodies.

Last, but not least, came our Old Year Service on December 31st. We gathered together to pray in the New Year and were challenged to let Jesus clean up our lives in 2011. Fourteen precious souls received Christ as Savior. What a rewarding end to such a busy schedule!

Truly our works will be rewarded, but with God's help and guidance and your prayers and gifts, we can share together the rewarding moments of the ministry in Grenada! Stay strong and keep on for His glory in this New Year!

In Christ,
