Dear Co-Laborers in Christ:

"...Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord .... and their works do follow them."
Revelation 14:13

One of the devotions for our Quiet Time Clubs challenged us to think about what people would say about us when we are gone. It also reminded us that today would be a good time to make changes in our life so that our testimony would be one that glorifies the Lord. Our desire is for the ministry here to continue and that God would bring His Word and the things we have taught them to their remembrance for years to come.

Several years ago Shirley-Ann attended services and gave her heart to the Lord. She was faithful for a time but her addiction to alcohol hindered her Christian growth. The past several years she battled cancer with a massive tumor on the side of her neck and face. The last time the ambulance came for her, she had this testimony, "I see flowers, trees, and angels." The community is still talking about her last words. Please pray that many will come to Christ as they consider her life and death.

The pre-school has given us another way to begin a work that will follow us. We've had a great start to the new school year. As we have the opportunity to reach children and their families for Christ, we have the promise that God's Word will not "return void."

Four received Christ as their Savior after a morning service. It was an exciting way to start the holiday season. May we continue together to bring forth "works" that will glorify the Lord and continue long after we are gone.

In Christ,
