Dear Co-Laborers in Christ,

"I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold,
I am alive for evermore."

Revelation 1:18a

There are highs and lows in every ministry. We rejoiced when a young man received Christ as his Savior and wept with Rindy, a special needs lady in the church, whose baby died at birth. Rindy never realized something could go wrong, but she knows that she will see her son in heaven because we serve a living Savior.

With this in mind, we began getting ready for the Easter season. For several months, the children collected points for faithfulness in order to participate in a special Easter game night fellowship. The points they collected determined how many games they could play and the winners of the games received prizes.

Then on the Saturday before Easter, we delivered our monthly food baskets and invited people in the community to attend our Easter Sunrise Service and Breakfast. Easter morning the church was full of our faithful church family. The choir sang special Easter songs that really added to the service as we worshipped Christ who died, but is "alive for evermore."

We are ever thankful for the living Savior who is with us, helps us, and gives us hope. Please remember us in your prayers as we go through the highs and lows of the ministry.

In Christ,
