Missionaries in BOLIVIA South America

October – December 2025

Dear Prayer Partners and Supporters,

These past few weeks have been especially busy with construction and preparations at our church rental property, along with several additional ministry opportunities. During this time, Jacob was asked to fill in for a couple of pastors while they were out of town. One of those Sundays, we filled in at the church in Quillacollo that we had assisted for several months before our furlough. It was exciting to see the progress that has happened since we last visited. They are now able to regularly meet at their new church property since we helped with the construction and clearing the land. The church is hosting events for the children and teens every weekend, and we can see that God is continuing to work through them in that needy area.

Things are moving along with the construction at the new church rental property in Lava Lava. We had hoped it would be ready in November, but as with most construction projects, it has taken a little longer than anticipated. This month, the finishing touches are being done on the building and the attached house where Juan and Alba's family will be living. We are hoping everything will be complete for their arrival in mid-January. We were glad Juan was able to visit for a week in November to begin preparations for their move. We are currently working to purchase all the supplies needed to begin using the building (kitchen appliances, chairs, platform, and sound equipment). Everything is coming together, and we are praying that God will use this church as a light in that community. Pray as we are planning to start a Kid's Bible Club, English classes, and a Bible study in January. Our plan is to have the official opening services at the beginning of March.

Since our last letter, Bolivia now has a new president! We are encouraged by some of the new policies being put into place and are praying that this new government will make wise decisions that help to stabilize the country. We would like to wish you all a Merry Christmas and pray that God blesses you for your faithfulness this coming New Year! Thank you for all your prayers and support!

Your servants for Christ's sake,
