

SCOTT & MARILEE Norman SERVANTS HELPING IN THE MINISTRY

October 2025

"For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations." - Psalm 100:5

Dear Friends and Family,

Throughout Scripture, the truth of the above statement rings loud and clear - - THE LORD IS GOOD! God proclaims it in His Word, and we proclaim it in our testimony. Without a doubt and seen in so many ways, the Lord indeed is good! He has certainly been good to us in October. We were in two mission conferences, one missions Sunday, and a camp meeting revival. We traveled almost 4,000 miles, and God graciously kept us awake, alert, and safe while we traveled. By the end of the month, were a bit exhausted but extremely blessed. The Lord is good!

On October 5, we took part in a homecoming service at Fellowship Baptist Church in Williamston, NC. We helped Fellowship for nearly two years when they were without a pastor. Praise God that He supplied them with a pastor (Philip Boseman), and the church is strong and growing. The Lord is good.

From October 7-11, we participated in a mission conference at Open Door Baptist Church in Canton, OH. Open Door is one of our supporting churches, and on Wednesday night, I had the privilege of reporting to the church and preaching the opening service of the mission conference. It was a wonderful conference, and we certainly enjoyed seeing Pastor Robert Butterfield and the good folks of Open Door. On Saturday, the men had the privilege of going to a firing range for some trap shooting, while the women did some shopping. We had a great time of fellowship. On the way to Canton, we had the opportunity to pass through Parkersburg, WV, and visit some dear friends of ours, Bob and Martha Lizer. Bob pastors Lighthouse Baptist Church, another one of our supporting churches. The Lord is good.

From October 12-16, we were in Lebanon, OH, participating in the annual camp meeting revival held at Lebanon Baptist Temple. I enjoyed teaching Sunday school and "kicking off" the camp meeting. The preaching was phenomenal, and the fellowship was precious. During this week, we traveled back to Canton, OH, for one day in order to visit with Roger and Elizabeth Workman, long time missionary friends and co-laborers. It was an especially blessed week in Lebanon, as Pastor Richard Drummond stepped aside as pastor and passed the torch to John Watkins, formerly the assistant pastor. Please pray for John as he takes the responsibility of being the new pastor. The Lord is good.

On October 17, we traveled to Gulf Coast Baptist Church in Ft Walton Beach, FL. On Sunday, October 19, I had the opportunity to not only present our ministry, but also to preach in both the morning and evening services. We had a wonderful time with Pastor Aaron Harris and his people. Our granddaughter, Jaina, a senior at PCC, visited us for the morning service. Praise the Lord! Gulf Coast took us on for support. On the way to Florida, we had the opportunity to stop and visit our son Kevin and his family in Nashville, TN. The Lord is good.

After leaving Florida, we traveled to Martinsburg, WV, and had the privilege of being with the good folks at Shenandoah Baptist Church for their annual mission conference from October 21-26. This was a phenomenal conference, and we praise God for all that Shenandoah did for us. We enjoyed having "Christmas" in October. The key note preacher was Corey Bane, their former pastor. Shenandoah is one of our supporting churches, and we were honored to meet the "new" pastor, John Woullard, and the mission's director, Justin Williams. The Lord is good.

The Lord has blessed us richly in October, and we praise Him for keeping us safe. It has been a joy to be able to report to supporting churches as well as to see a new church take us on for support. The Lord, indeed, is good!!

In October we had two churches call us for help. Both are without pastors. Pray that God would give wisdom and direction as we try to help these needy churches. Thank you for your continued prayers and support. God bless each of you in the coming days, and as November comes upon us, we wish each of you a HAPPY THANKSGIVING!! The Lord is good! Amen and Amen!!

Sincerely In Christ,
Scott and Marilee Norman
