Dear Praying Friend,

What a wonderful joy it is to serve the Lord with you in the cause of world evangelization! The goodness of God is overwhelming! We rejoice to serve in this capacity with you as our partners in prayer.

Since our letter last month, I have been privileged to see seven churches make financial decisions for giving to missions. I preached in RI, MI, AL, and NC. I am pleased to report that each church responded positively for the opportunity to give so that others may know.

The Fellowship Tract League invited me to come and preach their annual meeting. I took this opportunity as this one group has done so much to help the servants of the Lord in mission around the globe. It was a memorable meeting; I am grateful for what this group has done in supplying Seed to the Sowers with our agency and many others.

I am pleased to report to you that my work with Ambassador Baptist College students has concluded for the semester. They have determined to provide the Bible online in languages other than English that are based on the same text as the King James. I encourage you to view their project's work at <http://www.swoosher.net/aletheia> and <http://thefrenchbible.com/> They will be working on the Russian language next year, and I will continue to help them.

On a personal note, as you can tell by the enclosure, John our son is graduating from High School. We appreciate so many of you who have invested much in him over the years. We know you will not be able to attend his ceremony; nor do we send this in expectation of a gift. We merely covet your prayers in the days ahead as he makes decisions about God's course for his life and the college to which he should go. Please pray for him as you never have before, and for this you have our thanks.

I am excited about next month. I will speak at three missionary-training weeks. Of course I will be with WWNTBM, as well as with two other agencies. Please pray for wisdom to fulfill God's will in these opportunities.

Sincerely yours,
John M. O'Malley
