Dear Praying Friends,

For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations. Ps. 100:5

We rejoice in our Lord's goodness, mercy, and truth. It is these things that have sustained our home, heart, and harvest work for Him.

In December we were blessed to visit Romania, Hungary, and Germany. I went to interview Romona Nenescu. She is Romanian and desires to reach Arabic women in the Middle East. While in the region I used the time to visit two of our families. The Klaus family and Lisa Kendrick have ministry in both a German and military church respectively.

In January, I taught 18 future missionaries. They attend the Biblical School of World Evangelism in Milford, OH. It is a ministry of First Baptist Church of the same city.

Incidentally, this is the same church that is home of one of the many Bearing Precious Seed ministries. I spoke for over 20 hours on the subject of bringing the Gospel to a culture other than your own. Teaching men and women who will be tomorrow's missionaries was rewarding and beneficial.

Sixteen years ago, this year, God placed in my heart the precise calling to help get the Gospel to the regions beyond. Specifically, He indicated that I was to be used to help get the world the missionaries it needs. Never before has it been as clear to me as it is today. We must work for the night is coming.

The work ahead will bring a season of mission conferences and missionary interviews. It will also bring a time of training our missionaries in March. We will also be involved in the oversight of the mission. These goals and plans rely heavily on your prayers. Please know we cannot serve without you!
