Third Quarter, 2011

Dear Praying Friend,

My July speaking schedule is always marked with a meeting in Easley, SC at the Morningstar Independent Baptist Church, where David Ellenburg is pastor. We had a wonderful missions conference.

You see, the couple I mentioned to you in my first quarter prayer letter is from this church. They are Leslie and Amy Bourdess. They surrendered to God's calling to Cordova, Alaska. Following the missions conference, I returned to Morningstar for the missionary interview. A delegation of men from World Wide New Testament Baptist Missions (pictured above) came to conduct the interview. They were approved, and became our 99th family.

In September, we interviewed the 100th family with our missions agency. They are the Fittros, missionaries to Honduras. They are sent out by North Valley Baptist Church in Santa Clara, CA.

I spoke to the missionary families of the Armed Forces Baptist Missions at their family week. It was a blessing to touch the hearts and lives of those who serve America's finest. The meeting coincided with the tragic helicopter crash that killed many Navy S.E.A.L.s. It was a timely reminder of the brevity of life and the necessity of missions work amongst the military.

I also spoke in a missions conference at Faith Baptist Church in Maxwell, Indiana. Pictured at the left is their pastor, Larry Groves. He will be traveling with me to Burma in 2012, along with Barry Goodman and Danny Whetstone; we are going to train 60 church planters. Please pray, as my expenses will be about $3000.00.

Thank you for being our lifeline,
John M. O'Malley
