The Price Update

The last couple of months have been quite busy for us. Generally in France, August is very slow with everyone on vacation, but that has not been the case for us. Since our last prayer letter, we have seen three people make a profession of faith. One Peruvian couple, who recently arrived in Saint-Gaudens, prayed to accept the Lord as Savior. They were met and witnessed to by the Mexican missionary family who are with us for one year while learning the French language. The other person is a young man who is twenty-five years old. He has come to church on two other occasions. He accepted the Lord with us over

Teaching English

This fall, we will be undertaking a new project to try to reach the lost of our area. We will begin to lunch after church on Sunday. Please pray that these people would remain faithful to the Lord and grow in their new found faith. Please be praying for us as we will be showing a Bible documentary at the church for an evangelistic outreach on the 23rd and 24th of September. Pray that we would have many visitors for this outreach, and that God would use this time to see others come to Him.

use the Abeka ESL program to teach English. Please pray that this would attract people who are unsaved. Pray that this would be a tool to not just teach English, but to show those who come their need for a Savior. The classes will begin the beginning of October and will run the length of the school year.
