Tour de France

Everyone would be in agreement that this year has been unlike any other year! The same is true for our normal outreaches in the church. The Tour de France was rescheduled for the end of August and will be coming through our area again. I am looking forward to giving out Gospels of John and Romans to share the love of our Father. Pray that even though we do not have any teams from the USA to help with the outreach that we would have a large group to share the Gospel.

Though the ministry is difficult in France, it has been a joy to serve the Lord here and see God work in the lives of people. At times, we wonder if anything is being accomplished, but then the Lord works in a mighty way. What a good God we have! The normal activities of the church have still not started once again other than our church services. To be able to fit everyone in to the building and respecting the governmental regulations, we have had to go to three services each weekend. Praise the Lord that people come in spite of the complications!

The last two months have been trying at times, but also encouraging. It has been difficult to see the French believe that the Church is the reason for the virus outbreak. It has been difficult to try and explain that just because a church met for a special event that it was not the source of the problem. Our adversary has used this mindset to close even more hearts to hearing the Gospel. It has been encouraging to see that in spite of what is happening, people are still searching for the truth. Two new people have started coming to church since we re-opened the doors.
