

December, 2007

“For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.”

Dear Pastor,

The Christmas Season has already come, and with it, the remembrance of Christ's first coming. It appears that the people's hearts are more tender and receptive. The sweet music, a baby being born in a manger, the shepherds, the snow, and the animals... make a very lovely picture to the sensibility of mankind. But every year we have the same result; very few accept the salvation offered by that child born in Bethlehem. The Season will go away once more, and in January, for the great majority of the people every thing will be just about the same as it was before. But, concerning Christians, what about us? Are we going to follow the same steps as the unbelievers? In this Holy Season there is a big danger. There is a tendency to be much entertained in the wrapped paper of the Gift than in the Gift Himself. The gifts, Christmas banquets, decorations, special programs, family gatherings, etc., etc., can distract us from the real purpose of remembering Christ's first coming to this earth to give His life for us. Let us both celebrate and remember that which will best praise the One Who, “being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God. ...and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him... That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow ... And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.” Amen!

MERRY CHRISTMAS DEAR SUPPORTERS AND FRIENDS.

Receive our love in Christ. Thank you very much for your faithfulness, both in prayer and in giving out of your own sacrifice. We very dearly appreciate your love and care for us.

In the Holy Name of our Beloved Savior,

The Sanchez Family: Alejandro, Fina, and Samuel
Your missionaries in Spain