Dear Supporters,

Summer passed so quickly that before we realized it, we were already into the fall season.

We have a new blessing from August. My wife had the opportunity again to attend summer camp, where she serves in the kitchen. She was talking with Bro. Richard’s daughter and gave her the plain gospel message. After several questions, she was gloriously saved. Her parents say that they have seen a change in her at home. Praise the Lord for that new soul in heaven. Her name is Nati (13 years old).

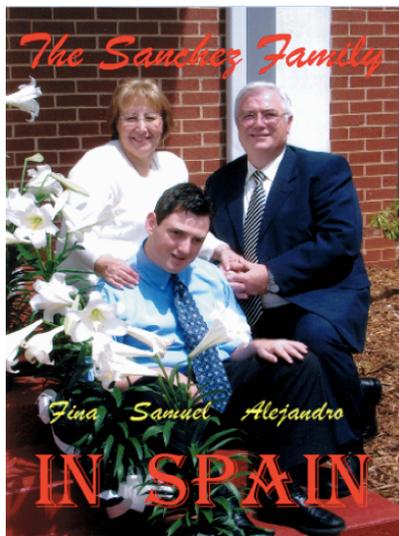

Fina is also involved in a special class for teenagers. There is a group of eight people in total: Celsio, Efraín, Lorena, Andrea, Yakira, Julia, Rut, and Roxana. The theme is related to the way they should dress, especially girls, and biblical teaching on friendship and the purity of dealing with boys and girls.

Some of our families left for vacation. One of the families of five has stayed in Romania for about two months. We miss them a lot.

Brother Richard and Sister Lauri, the ones who came from Venezuela, are growing beyond we expected. You may recall that they came from a Charismatic background. They are absorbing every single truth we present to them and are very faithful to our Bible Institute (C.E.B.E.) Ebenezer Bible Study Center. Recently, while talking about the situation in Venezuela, they said, “If we ever can go back to our country, we will have difficulty finding a church like this, but we could no longer attend the same church because now we know the truth.” They are a blessing.

In Sunday school, we continue with the precious book of Romans. We are not in a hurry, so we study verse by verse. We are now in chapter nine, and people are still attending, maybe because they are very good people and love me so much—haha!

In our Bible Institute this semester, we are studying A Synopsis of the Old Testament and Historical Books of the Old Testament. We still have the same people, though sometimes the families that live in Valladolid (two and a half hours away) are not able to come. They are not as regular as they were before. We are praying especially for their finances to get better. Please pray for them.

Another blessing is that in Villanueva—the new church we started last year—two new young men began attending our services. Casimiro is a single 23-year-old. He prayed by himself to receive Christ a year ago and is very studious and intelligent. We were surprised when Casimiro came for the first time to our Sunday morning service. He likes to read his Bible in English. Now he has a bilingual Bible. Please pray for him as he learns, and that I may be careful in teaching him. He is not the kind of person who swallows everything without comprehension. The other young man is a 19-year-old named Marco. He claims that he became a Christian while he was in a Lutheran church in the United States. I am not very sure that he really is saved. One day he came with his parents because they wanted to check out the kind of church was he attending. Both of them are university students. Please pray for them.

Our country, Spain, is in some political troubles. This next Sunday we are going to vote for the fourth time in four years. Pray that the Lord will give us a government that is wise with our financial affairs. At the moment, socialist and communist parties have come together to govern our country for the next four years. They get crazy spending money anytime they get the power. Please pray for Spain.

All of what we are able to do is because you all are praying and supporting us so faithfully. Thanks a lot for being so kind and showing so much love to our Lord and your missionaries.

May God’s grace be always with you in all your circumstances.

With much love and gratitude,

The Sanchez Family
