September 2007

Greetings from Indiana,

Several churches were expecting to see my father during this month, but he was unable to be there because he was called out of the United States to be in Mexico to sign some papers for his immigration status. Dad asked me to fill in his schedule, and I appreciate these churches for being so understanding and allowing me to cover for him. These churches were very loving toward me and have a great burden for missions. They are full of God fearing men and women who have been a blessing to many missionaries around the world. I thank God for them.

By the way, after more than 35 years in Mexico, dad finally received his Mexican green card! He is now a legal resident of Mexico, this will help him not only in border crossing, but also in other documentation in the future.

God touched the hearts of several people this month and gave me the opportunity to be in Mexico for one week so my wife and I could be together. This was a wonderful blessing, since it had been 9 weeks since we had seen each other. On my arrival my wife informed me that her thesis was accepted by the university and she will be joining me in the month of January. We were happy to get this news because she has been working hard to obtain her degree all year, and she is now one step closer in getting it.

During my visit in Guadalajara I met the new students of the Bible Institute. We have 2 married couples with their babies, a single young man called Pancho, as well as his brother Nacho, who is in his last year of schooling. Please pray for these students as they study to be more effective servants of God.

Please pray for me during this time of deputation, and pray that it will go quickly since there is much work to be done in Mexico.

In His Service,
Jerry Shaw Jr.
