April, 2008

Greetings from North Carolina,

This month has been a fascinating month, both on deputation, as well as on the field. In Mexico we are getting ready for our graduation. This year we have a very unique individual who will be graduating with honors; his name is Ignacio. Bro. Ignacio is probably one of the poorest students that has ever been to the Bible school, and probably one of the brightest, it will be interesting to see what the Lord has in store for him. Please pray that the Lord will guide him and use him for His glory in a great way.

The girl's dorm building is going through some renovations this month. My father found out that the roof was caving in on top of the kitchen and the office. The Building is pretty old and has never had a complete restoration; because of this, the front part of the building was apparently close to collapsing, and we had never noticed. There are a couple of men that are now working on tearing down the ceiling to have a new one put in. It is a big project; please pray that it will be done before the next semester comes around. Itzen and I have been saving money to make more repairs on the building when we get back. It will be one of our first projects upon our return; please pray for us to get there soon, as there is much to be done.

Brother Alejandro Galaviz, a graduate of the school and missionary to the Mayan Indians, is now moving to the United States. He will begin pastoring a Hispanic church in the state of Georgia sometime within the next few months. This is a blessing, because there are so many Hispanics in this country with the need of a knowledgeable servant of God who can bring them the plan of salvation and help them grow spiritually. There is the possibility that, through Bro. Alejandro, we can start a new branch of the Bible College in the state of Georgia. This is a great opportunity, so please keep him in your prayers, as these next few months will be interesting for him and his family.

Continue to pray for us that we may get back to Guadalajara soon to continue doing the work to which God has called us.

In His Service,
Jerry and Itzen Shaw
