MISSIONARIES TO THE CITY OF Boston

Praying Friends,

June, 2018

We have been very busy over the last couple of months. We have been in several mission conferences as well as Sunday meetings, as well as a family wedding. We are so excited to announce that we are done traveling for full time deputation!

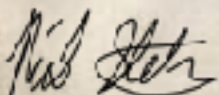

We have been home for about a week now, and Nick has already preached in 3 nursing homes and handled the Sunday and Wednesday night services while Pastor DiGiacomo was away. We are excited to be getting involved with the church here and also to be preparing for the first church plant in Boston.

Nick has begun studying Spanish, and Lindsey plans to start this week as well. We are also looking into the steps we need to take for Lindsey to get certified in TESL (Teaching English to Speakers of other Languages), which would be another avenue to reach out to the immigrant community in Boston.

Last Saturday, Nick had the opportunity to have several individual meetings with people in a psychiatric hospital who had requested a pastor to meet with them, and at the end of one of those meetings a Catholic lady accepted Christ! She asked Nick, "Could you just give me some hope?" We praise the Lord that now she can look to the "blessed hope and glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ".

We will be traveling down for our mission board's family fellowship week later this month, and the next week Nick will be taking the teens of the church to camp. Please pray for safety for these trips and that the Lord would work in the teens' hearts. Thank you so much for your prayers and financial support!
