

Kevin Taylor & Family

serving with you in Puebla, Mexico

Dear Gospel Partners,

From a cup running over here in central Mexico I write you with a thankful heart. God's goodness is too much to pack in to two sides of a page, but here we go. Let's try!

Church Plant in November

God willing, "Iglesia Bíblica Bautista Esperanza" (Hope Bible Baptist Church) will hold its inaugural service on Sunday November 6th.

Our primary outreach/discipleship efforts will be our "Grupo Esperanza" weekly meetings for addicts and their families, along with our "Fundamentos Familiares" family counseling sessions that we will be re-starting in October. Also, several of our folks have been visiting a nearby town called Saravia and started a van route there. It's been great to see good attendance at our preliminary services that we have held (photos below).

A brother has donated a piece of land to plant the church, and another family donated the white tent in the pictures above. These are the resources we will be starting with. Eventually, having a building would help, and if you'd like to participate in giving or coming down to help build in the future, feel free to contact me by email (keruxhispano@yahoo.com).

Concerning this new church, we have often asked the question, "Can you imagine what God would do with a church full of ex-addicts, now addicted to Jesus?" Truly, as our Lord said, those who are forgiven much love much (Lk. 7:47).

Why do "Grupo Esperanza" and Hope House exist? (see next page)
