December 17, 2013

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from Delta Junction, Alaska. What a year 2013 has been! It had barely begun when Nancy and I had to leave Alaska and head to North Carolina to help her parents. We thought we would be gone for only a few months. But the Lord had other plans and His plans are always best. Although we may not understand all that the Lord was doing, He had things for us to do there. We praise the Lord for all that was accomplished during that time.

After being absent from Alaska for almost seven months, we hit the frozen tundra running. Then just 2 weeks later we found out that Nancy has leukemia. Our thought was ok, now what. Nancy and I made the decision that we were going to use this for His honor and glory. The Lord makes no mistakes and He is in control. It is our hope that we can use this to further the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord has given us many opportunities to tell about His love and grace to many new people that have been open to hear. Because of the leukemia, we have been able to distribute tracts and daily devotional books in places that we would not have had the opportunity otherwise. It is our prayer that God will use these materials to be an encouragement to the saved and an heart-opener to the lost.

It seems Nancy and I have spent more time at the hospital over the past few months, either for us or for friends, than we have spent in Delta Junction. It is our desire to be a testimony of the love and grace of God and to tell others what He can do for them, no matter what may come our way. We desire your prayers that with God's help we will be that witness and that others will see a difference in our lives. The Lord has been so good and has supplied our needs. He has used so many of you to be such an encouragement to Nancy and I. We are so thankful for everyone of you and pray that you have a wonderful Christmas and a Blessed New Year.
